TAKING ACTION... CHANGING LIVES

OUR VISION

United Way envisions a world where all individuals and families achieve their human potential through education, income stability and healthy lives.

Imagine a world that fosters hope and opportunity for everyone. A world where...

- All children receive a quality education that offers a pathway to a brighter tomorrow.
- The cycle of poverty and financial dependence ends, and productive livelihoods begin for even the most disadvantaged.
- Everyone receives effective health care that improves quality of life.
- Communities not only set significant and measurable goals to advance these fundemental elements of human development, but achieve them.

Dear Supporters:

Thank you for your continued support. I'm proud to share with you some of United Way of Southern Kentucky's key accomplishments in 2012-13. Because of you, we were able to bring together people, organizations and resources to get great things done in communities across our region.

From Tompkinsville to Russellville, from Mammoth Cave to the Tennessee border, we are all working together to advance the common good. It is through your United Way volunteer and advocacy efforts, along with your financial support, that we continue our movement to create a better life for everyone we

In 2012-13, we increased our mission work in each of our guiding principles - give, advocate, and volunteer. We continued to advance our goals toward achieving greater educational success, building stronger financial futures, and living healthier lives. And we mobilized thousands of people and organizations to take action and change lives.

This annual report highlights the many ways we continue to improve lives and strengthen communities throughout southern Kentucky. You helped make this happen. On behalf of everyone whose lives have been touched by your United Way support, thank you.

Sincerely,

Steve Wallace President and Chief Executive Officer

Dear Supporters:

On behalf of the Board of Directors of United Way of Southern Kentucky, I extend my sincere gratitude to you, our supporters and volunteers, for helping positively impact the lives of thousands of Southern Kentuckians in need in the past year. The passion and dedication of each and every one of you is critical to our effort as an organization to continue our mission of bringing together resources to create a better community in which to live.

It has been an extreme privilege to serve as Chairman of the Board, but even more rewarding has been my service as a volunteer and donor just like many of you. Therefore, I hope you are as proud as I am to share in this annual report highlighting some of United Way of Southern Kentucky's achievements reached in 2012-13.

I can think of no more exciting a time to be involved in the work of United Way of Southern Kentucky. Along with the organization's staff and leadership, which is stronger than ever, the Board of Directors has begun to lay the groundwork for what will carry this organization's future beyond levels it has never before seen.

As we move forward, please know that our work in the communities of Southern Kentucky has only begun. Your commitment is as crucial now as ever, so I encourage each of you to continue your efforts to give, advocate and volunteer. For in the end, what ultimately matters are the lives that will be touched and forever changed because of your choice to support United Way.

Sincerely,

Tad Pardue Chairman of the Board

In the spring of 2013, United Way of Southern Kentucky began laying the foundation for the security of its future and the futures of those who are assisted each year through the efforts of United Way. By taking the first steps toward being able to one day allocate more of each dollar raised back into our community through the revitalization of an Endowment Fund, United Way has made the commitment to protect the long-term sustainability of the organization by engaging key United Way partners through their financial support. Efforts will continue into the future to build a strong

Because government is a critical decision-maker and the major provider and funder of health and human services, United Way must actively engage in public policy.

UNITED WAY WORLDWIDE STANDARDS OF EXCELLENCE

Throughout our history, United Way has done extraordinary work to improve people's lives and build strong communities. With our focus on community impact, United Way has a key role to play in advocating for good public policy.

United Way engages in public policy advocacy because we recognize that it is our civic obligation to use our experience and knowledge to help inform policy makers' decisions regarding policy and funding of government human services programs.

United Way is a policy leader in the non-profit community because it helps to craft practical long-term solutions to human needs. It remains non-ideological and non-partisan in its advocacy, urging lawmakers to set aside partisanship and to work together. United Way uses its convening power – bringing together all our partners: business, labor, non-profits, and advocates – to help find policy common ground to Advance the Common Good.

For additional information on United Way Worldwide policy engagement, please visit www.unitedway.org/publicpolicy.

"United Way can't do it alone. We must work collaboratively with our partners to elevate these issues, build coalitions to advance research-based strategies, invite individuals and organizations into meaningful action, and advocate collectively for active change."

- Stacy D. Stewart President, United Way USA

The strategies fall into the following tier categories:

TIER 1: Legislative Leadership Engagement

United Way will assume a leadership role in advocacy on Capitol Hill, before the Administration, and with the human services sector, proactively lobbying and bringing visibility to our issues. United Way will devote resources to research, policy development, grass-roots organization, and advocacy on these issues.

TIER 2: Legislative Advocacy Engagement

United Way will proactively develop positions, advocate, and generate grassroots support among local United Ways on an as-needed basis.

TIER 3: Legislative Support Engagement

United Way will monitor and respond to requests for support through such vehicles as "sign-on letters." United Way will support the work of coalition partners who are the thought leaders on Tier 3 issues.

FEED THE NEED: MARCH / APRIL 2013

"Feed the Need" was created in 2009 by United Way of Southern Kentucky in response to the need in our communities for increased food resources. After speaking with local food pantries that benefited from the drive in previous years, it was abundantly clear that there continued to be a need for this drive. Since its inception, "Feed the Need" has collected more than 244,000 items for local food pantries that were distributed to individuals and families in need in Southern Kentucky.

In 2013, 113 companies and 847 volunteers collected 41,688 items that were distributed to food pantries in Allen, Barren, Butler, Edmonson, Logan, Simpson, and Warren counties.

DAY OF CARING: JULY 25, 2012

The United Way Day of Caring is a one day, structured volunteer opportunity that provides participants with a peek at volunteering. On this one day, businesses make a commitment to offer their employees a chance to "step away from their desks" to provide hands-on, volunteer labor for a wide variety of projects. Team participation in the Day of Caring aids in building camaraderie and goodwill among employees while also helping the community.

In 2012, 1210 volunteers representing 85 companies completed 105 projects.

Examples of Projects:

J.M. Smucker Company hosted a Back To School Bash; Logan Aluminum hosted a Fishing Tournament for all Logan County ARC clients; WKU Athletics held a Kid's Sports Clinic at the Boys and Girls Club of Bowling Green; Fruit of the Loom collected socks and underwear for Warren County Schools Family Resource Centers.

Early Childhood Education

DOLLY PARTON IMAGINATION LIBRARY

Investments in high quality preschool education affect not only the lifelong success of the individual participants, but over time lead to positive effects on social maladies such as poverty, personal abuse and substance abuse.

United Way's Early Childhood Education community impact goal is to ensure that all children will enter kindergarten ready to succeed. To get books into the hands of children, United Way of Southern Kentucky adopted the Dolly Parton Imagination Library in 2011 to help spark a child's interest in reading and learning.

Any child, from birth to the age of five, can enroll in the program. Once enrolled, the child will receive one age appropriate book every month in the mail until they reach the age of five. The program was offered in Allen, Barren, Logan, and Warren counties through United Way of Southern Kentucky.

STUDENT UNITED WAY

Young people across the country are helping to improve their local communities by giving, advocating and volunteering. This powerful movement called Student United Way, is helping to advance the common good. Student United Way is a campus based student led organization that works in partnership with the local United Way. Currently, Student United Ways exist on more than 60 campuses across the United States including: technical & trade schools, junior and community colleges, colleges and universities, as well as several high schools.

The Western Kentucky University Student United Way is a student-run branch of United Way of Southern Kentucky that became an official organization on the WKU campus during the fall of 2012. They are a group of student volunteers devoted to lending their time and talent for the benefit of our surrounding community. Through their efforts, they hope to encourage other students to become both active members of the WKU Student United Way and volunteers within the community. Ultimately, their goal is to inspire members to continue giving and volunteering beyond their careers at WKU.

FINANCIAL ACCOUNTABILITY.

When you give to the United Way of Southern Kentucky, you entrust your hard-earned dollars to an organization that takes this trust very seriously. Volunteers make sure that designated funds are distributed according to the donor's wishes and then oversee the allocation of undesignated funds to all programs through citizen review panels. These panels conduct annual reviews and closely monitor agency services. Just as important, United Way of Southern Kentucky is audited by an independent auditing firm and is carefully scrutinized by volunteers. United Way of Southern Kentucky also annually files the IRS Form 990 required for non-profit organizations. For a five year history of the United Way of Southern Kentucky IRS Form 990 or annual audit, please visit www.uwsk.org.

ALEXIS DE TOCQUEVILLE SOCIETY $10,000 +

The United Way Tocqueville Society was formed in commitment to, and support for United Way's work in who have devoted time, talent, and funds to create long-lasting changes by tackling our communities' least $10,000 annually to a member United Way.

TROY AND ANN PUCKETT

Ann Puckett grew up in a family that believed in giving back. Her father instilled in her that everyone should be thankful for what they have and share their blessings with those less fortunate. Troy & Ann feel so blessed that they have been able to raise their family in this wonderful community and feel an obligation to try to help improve the lives of those that need a helping hand.

When Ann Puckett joined BKD, LLP 21 years ago, BKD employees were already running a strong United Way employee campaign. After learning more about United Way's work in the community, Ann decided to become a United Way contributor the first year she was an employee at BKD, LLP. Five years ago, Troy and Ann made the decision to increase their commitment to United Way by becoming members of the Alexis De Tocqueville Society.

Ann also wanted to volunteer in our community. She was given the opportunity to volunteer on an allocations panel through United Way and assist with the annual distribution of campaign dollars. Ann says that she will never forget what an eye opening experience it was to visit the programs, hear the stories of clients and learn how many people truly needed a helping hand.

Troy & Ann enjoy the fact that United Way "does all of the homework" and due diligence to be sure that dollars donated are going to programs that truly need the money; are effectively providing services to recipients and meeting serious needs in our community. They believe United Way is a great way to know their dollars are truly going to help those in need.

The Pucketts have a resounding confidence that United Way is keeping its hands on the pulse of current needs in our community and that United Way will continue to hold conversations with stakeholders to be sure it is targeting the most important needs as they evolve over time.

Ann shares, "I have seen first hand the hard work that volunteers and United Way staff put into their work to be sure donor dollars are well spent. I have complete confidence in the work and impact of donating to United Way."

What Makes Someone A Leader?

A leader has a vision. Leaders see a problem that needs to be fixed or a goal that needs to be achieved. It may be something that no one else sees or simply something that no one else wants to tackle. Whatever it is, it is the focus of the leader's attention and they attack it with determination.

THANK YOU to the following for being a leader in our community through your membership in United Way of Southern Kentucky's Leadership Circle. Your generosity serves as an inspiration to others to make the choice to LIVE UNITED by providing a hand up to change the life of someone in need in Southern Kentucky.
